

HEALTH EQUITY PILOT PROJECT

Background and overview

Background and overview

The European Commission supports actions to address health inequalities:

- 1) Between member states
- 2) Within member states

The area is covered by a European Commission communication 'Solidarity in Health: Health Inequalities in the EU' published in October 2009.

Background and overview

The European Commission supported:

The Joint Action on Health inequalities

<https://eurohealthnet.eu/hpe/equity-action-joint-action>

European Parliament agreed funding for a pilot project on health inequalities.

UK Health Forum is leading the contract.

Background and overview

1. Scientific reviews of interventions that work to address inequalities in nutrition, physical activity, and alcohol consumption.
2. Case studies of effective practice – from reformulation, to junk food tax, to city wide obesity programmes.
3. Country profiles.
4. Workshops

Background and overview

Workshops:

Based on evidence, supportive of change,
tailored to circumstances.

Our job is to help you find your way forward..

To consider how you can better address health inequalities

Your job is to explore the possibilities.

Background and overview

Health Inequalities

1. A social justice issue – no-one left behind
2. An issue for productive workforce
3. Make the most difference where there is the most opportunity.

Pay attention to health inequalities (social gradient, excluded groups, deprived areas)
