Types of activities which can be funded

The MPF aims to provide short-term and small-scale support to partner countries aimed at the development of governmental capacities in order to enhance the domestic frameworks for migration and mobility in line with MP and CAMM objectives. Such activities can include the following:

- Peer-to-peer capacity building and expertise (mainly EU MS experts);
- Development and implementation of training materials, curricula and training sessions;
- Review and development of legislation, policy documents and standard operating procedures;
- Provision of specific equipment in relation to capacity building support;
- Design and implementation of awareness-raising campaigns;
- Conferences and expert meetings;
- Studies, reviews, evaluations and monitoring activities.
