

Coskun CAKAR

Conservatoire National des Arts et des Métiers
Associate Professor

After twenty years spent in the field of finance and auditing (Financial controller at Valeo, Deputy audit director at Areva), Coskun Cakar decided to pursue his career at University.

Graduate of a PhD in management obtained at the Sorbonne Business School, he joined in 2017 the Cnam as associate professor, responsible for the teaching unit "Accounting, Finance and Audit".

His academic research focuses on internal audit practices within major industrial groups.