We are

The core business of the European Commission’s Service for Foreign Policy Instruments (FPI) is to put EU foreign policy into action – fast and flexibly – in a policy-driven approach. The Service deals with the regulatory and financial aspects of EU foreign policy. It acts as first responder to foreign policy needs and opportunities, focusing on conflict prevention and peace as well as on leveraging the EU’s influence in the world. It also supports initiatives on global, trans-regional and emerging threats and the Service performs the role of administrator and perform the financial tasks of the European Peace Facility in relation to assistance measures with military and defence implications.

The Service plays a crucial role in translating the European Commission’s political priorities into external action, in line with the EU’s Global Strategy for Foreign and Security Policy.

The Service reports directly to the High Representative/Vice President. The Service works in close cooperation with the other Commission services, as well as with the European External Action Service (EEAS), both in headquarters and in delegations.

FPI staff around the globe are proud of the work that they are achieving and have a strong sense of purpose and motivation. They take, and value, a high level of personal responsibility. A policy-driven approach, a focus on priorities, solutions and impact, combined with a welcoming and supporting atmosphere, are part of the service’s corporate culture. In terms of values, the service promotes professionalism and teamwork, encourages commitment and promotes respect. It also seeks to embed trust and fairness while prioritizing effective communication at all levels.

The Unit FPI.6 is in charge of three main areas whose overall purposes are:

- Financial management: to ensure sound financial management of operations under the responsibility of FPI, giving assurance to the Authoring Officer that transactions are legal, regular and comply with the contractual and financial rules in force.
- Budget and Accounts: to lead, oversee and report on the annual budgetary procedure in relation to all FPI-managed instruments/operations and to ensure reliability of accounts.
- Planning Reporting, Evaluation: to lead the Strategic Planning and Programming cycle, report on results and performance, evaluate outcomes, manage ABAC/CRIS and OPSYS systems access rights and provide support.

The Unit also acts as focal point for relations with other institutions, internal briefing coordination and administration of FPI staff missions.

The unit is composed of highly motivated staff members; 31 in Headquarters and 24 staff in Delegations in third countries. Team spirit, a strong sense of initiative and responsibility is a common feature of all unit members.
