4-5 April	The future of health care provision in rural areas - Germany
Saxony-Anhalt is facing a major challenge: demographic change is currently at its peak in this region. An aging population with increased health care service demands meets a growing shortage of medical and nursing staff, especially in the vast rural areas. Technological innovation in the health care sector is therefore becoming a priority for this region. Their innovation camp on this complex issue involved a broad range of relevant stakeholders.

6 April	JRC Karlsruhe Open Day
The JRC Karlsruhe Site Open Day initiative sought to showcase the JRC contribution in delivering a Europe that protects, empowers and defends. With this inspiring concept of the current EU Commission, people engaged in the following activities and more: •Be a Nuclear Detective for a day! Demonstration on Nuclear Forensics •Natural Radioactivity, what is it? •Virtual reality of different facilities •The decarbonisation of EU energy supply •Nuclear medicine- cancer therapy with alpha-emitters

10-11 April	2019 JRC workshop on checks and management of agricultural land in IACS
The 2019 JRC workshop on checks and management of agricultural land in the Integrated Administration and Control System (IACS) was held in Valladolid, Spain. The workshop was co-hosted by the Consejería de Agricultura y Ganadería de la Junta de Castilla y León (Regional Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock) and the FEGA (Spanish Agrarian Guarantee Fund). The workshop was held in the premises of the Regional Ministry of Agriculture (Calle Rigoberto Cortejoso, 14, 47014 Valladolid, Spain). The purpose of the workshop was to bring together the technical experts from the Member States and the European Commission to find appropriate solutions and foster innovative developments. The 2019 IACS workshop mainly addressed: Aspects of the introduction of monitoring as a means to substitute on-the-spot checks (OTSC); Current developments on data sharing; Presentations of H2020 projects targeting the CAP; Some hints on the CAP2020+. This year, presentations and discussions were in plenary sessions only.

12 April	SOFAIR European Air Quality Conference 2019
----------	---

SOFAIR is an international high-level conference on air pollution, initiated by the Mayor of Sofia, Mrs. Yordanka Fandakova. It was attended by policymakers, scientists, experts and representatives of the private sector and non-governmental organisations. SOFAIR gathered the most important stakeholders in the common efforts to solve air pollution in Europe and was organised in partnership with the European Commission's Joint Research Centre (JRC) and with the support of EUROCITIES.

24 April
