Register in just a few steps to visit the Institute for Reference Materials and Measurements (IRMM), Joint Research Centre in Geel on Sunday, October 4th, 2015.

Please register online and read and accept the privacy statement. Should you make a registration for another person(s), you are kindly requested to inform the latter of their rights under Regulation No 45/2001 as detailed by the privacy statement mentioned above. For registration purposes, visitors need to comply with the requirements of the privacy statement.

If this is your first time using the system, you will first need to create a personal account in the on-line European Commission’s System (ECAS) to obtain an account. The system will guide you through this procedure (step-by-step guideline).

NOTE: If you are using Internet Explorer, please upgrade to IE9 or a higher version. Many features on the website will not work when using older versions of Internet Explorer.

Please ensure that the participants’ personal details are readily available (date of birth, nationality, ID card or passport number, date and place of issue) as this information will be required to complete the online registration.

All visitors will have to present their identity card or passport at the entrance on Sunday 4 October 2015 to enter the site.

A parent must accompany children under 18. If a child does not possess a valid identity card or passport, he/she must be registered using the identity card or passport number of one of the parents.

Registration is not possible after October 2nd, 2015.

Places are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.
