EU SUPPORT ON MIGRATION IN LIBYA

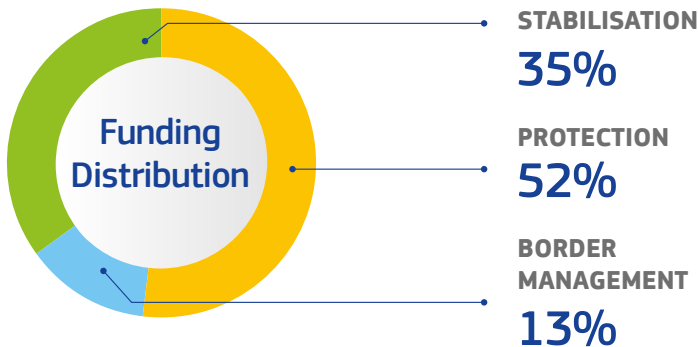

EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa North of Africa window

January 2022

Since its creation in November 2015, the EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa has been the EU's main tool for actions to support migration related issues in Libya. The Trust Fund has mobilised so far €455 million in projects in Libya, out of which:

In total, the EU has devoted around €700 million in support to Libya these last few years under various funding instruments, including the EU Trust Fund for Africa (EUTF), the European Neighbourhood Instrument (ENI), the humanitarian assistance (ECHO), the Instrument contributing to Stability and Peace (IcSP) among others.

COVID-19 Response

Team Europe supports Libya in responding to the COVID-19 pandemic since early 2020. The European Union allocated €23.1 million under the EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa (EUTF) for specific COVID-19 actions. These COVID-19 response actions come in addition to existing EU programmes supporting the Libyan public health sector that has been suffering severe damages and undersupplies as a consequence of years of conflict.

EU-funded COVID-19 response actions particularly focus on Libya's most vulnerable communities, including refugees, internally displaced persons, migrants and their host communities. The EU collaborates with WHO, IOM, UNICEF and the IMC, and the programmes are expected to directly benefit more than 1 million people across the country.
