EU-Israel relations

The EU and Israel enjoy close political and mutually beneficial trade and investment relations, together with significant economic, financial, research and innovation, cultural, people-to people and security cooperation.

Trade & investment

- The EU is Israel's main trading partner: the EU represented 32.2% of total good imports by Israel and 21.1% of total good exports from Israel to the world in 2019.
- In 2018 trade in services between the EU and Israel was worth €12.2 billion.
- Total inward and outward FDI stocks reached €100 billion in 2018.

Mobility & Erasmus+

- Israel benefits from a visa-free regime.
- 8,415 Israeli students professors and university staff travelled to Europe and 6,582 European counterparts travelled to Israel between 2015 and 2020.

EU funding<sup>1</sup>

- Under the European Neighbourhood Instrument:
  - The EU provides €2 million annually for institutional twinning projects. In 2019 Israel benefitted from twinning in the fields of waste management, education and telecommunications which are still ongoing.
  - Israel benefits, together with Palestine*, from the regional programme 'European Peacebuilding Initiative'. The annual EU contribution to the Initiative of €5 million supports and promotes the conditions for a sustainable resolution of the Israeli-Palestine conflict through civil society projects and citizens' positive engagement.
  - Israel's public administration benefited from 25 events of the EU's Technical Assistance and Information Exchange instrument (TAIEX) in 2019, tackling issues such as industrial wastewater, energy efficiency and road safety.
- Israel participates actively in Horizon 2020, the EU's Framework Programme for Research and Innovation, and benefited from cooperation projects worth close to €170 million per year in the period 2017-2020.
- Israel benefits from loan financing for infrastructure and investment projects channelled by the European Investment Bank with notable recent interventions in desalination (€150 million) and innovation in the context of the coronavirus (€50 million).
- Israel also benefits from EU thematic programmes and instruments, such as the European Instrument for Democracy and Human Rights and the Civil Society Organisations and Local Authorities programme under the Development Cooperation Instrument for a total of over €14.6 million in 2014-2020.

Coronavirus response

Israel participates in Horizon 2020 calls for research into coronavirus treatments, tests and vaccines.
