COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION

of 11.12.2015

on the 2nd special measure for the 2015 ENI contribution to the European Union Regional Trust Fund in response to the Syrian crisis, to be financed from the general budget of the European Union

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) No 236/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 March 2014 laying down common rules and procedures for the implementation of the Union's instruments for financing external action1, and in particular Article 2(1) thereof,

Having regard to Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 October 2012 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union and repealing Council Regulation (EC, Euratom) No 1605/20022, and in particular Articles 84(2) and 187 thereof,

Having regard to Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 1268/2012 of 29 October 2012 on the rules of application of Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union3 (hereinafter the “Rules of Application”), and in particular Article 94 thereof,

Whereas:

(1) On 10 December 2014, a Decision4 for the establishment of the European Union Regional Trust Fund in response to the Syrian crisis (‘the Trust Fund’) was adopted for a duration of 60 months.

(2) The overall objective of the Trust Fund is to provide a coherent and reinforced aid response to the Syrian crisis on a regional scale, responding primarily in the first instance to the needs of refugees from Syria in neighbouring countries, as well as of the communities hosting the refugees and their administrations, in particular as regards resilience and early recovery. The Trust Fund focuses on current priority needs and may also be adapted to reconstruction needs in a future post-conflict scenario. Assistance inside Syria will be considered taking into account, and avoiding overlap with, the action of other existing international funding instruments.

(3) Since the establishment of the Trust Fund, the EU adopted a regional strategy for Syria and Iraq as well as the ISIL/Da’esh threat5, which will guide the funds first years of operations, as mentioned in the strategic orientation document for the Trust Fund adopted in the first Trust Fund board held on 29 May 2015.

(5) The Trust Fund held its first board meetings on 29 May 2015 and programmes for EUR 39.5 million were adopted from the above-mentioned contributions.

(6) In its fifth year, the Syrian crisis continues to have dramatic consequences on neighbouring countries’ economies, social services and infrastructure, notably due to an influx of 4 million Syrian refugees in the region to date. The unprecedented magnitude of the crisis requires an increased European financial effort to ease the pressure on the overstretched hosting infrastructures in the region.

(7) This Decision is in line with the Communication from the Commission ‘Managing the refugees crisis: immediate operational, budgetary and legal measures under the European Agenda on Migration’\(^10\) and the statement of the informal meeting of Heads of State and Government of 23 September 2015 that commits to “assist Lebanon, Jordan, Turkey and other countries in dealing with the Syrian refugee crisis, including through a substantial increase of the EU’s Regional Trust Fund in response to the Syrian Crisis”\(^11\) as well as Foreign Affairs Council Conclusions of 12 October 2015 where the Council “agreed specifically on the need to increase the level of cooperation and partnership with Lebanon, Jordan and Turkey to ensure equal access to shelter, education, health and livelihoods for refugees and their host communities with the support of additional EU assistance”.

(8) This Decision complies with the conditions of Article 94 of the Rules of Application.

(9) For the application of this Decision, it is appropriate to define the term "non-substantial change" within the meaning of Article 94(4) of the Rules of Application to ensure that any such changes can be adopted by the authorising officer by delegation.

(10) The measure provided for in this Decision is in accordance with the opinion of the ENI Committee pursuant to Article 15 of Regulation (EU) No 232/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council\(^12\).
