THE EU'S SUPPORT TO UKRAINE'S SOVEREIGNTY AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY

The EU remains firm in its commitment to Ukraine's sovereignty and territorial integrity. The EU strongly condemns the illegal annexation of Crimea and Sevastopol by the Russian Federation and continues to condemn this violation of international law. The EU has adopted a strict non-recognition policy that has led to substantive sanctions that include diplomatic measures, asset freezes and travel bans, and substantial restrictions on economic exchanges with the territory.

The EU has been strongly supporting efforts to come to a peaceful and sustainable solution to the conflict in eastern Ukraine. It supports the diplomatic efforts of the Normandy format, Trilateral Contact Group and OSCE. The EU's approach is to combine pressure through restrictive measures with diplomatic efforts and continuing dialogue.

Ukraine's sovereignty was further attacked by a Russian decree of April 2019 enabling the simplified issuing of Russian passports to residents of the self-proclaimed separatist entities in eastern Ukraine. This also goes against the objectives and provisions of the Minsk agreements. On 1 October 2019, the EU issued guidelines to its Member States on how to handle visa applications from residents in these areas, including on the non-recognition of passports. The guidance sent provides a set of uniform treatment criteria to help Member States' consulates to establish the actual place of legal residence of Russian passport holders, as well as details on how to process visa applications by residents of the non-Government controlled areas of Ukraine's Donetsk and Luhansk regions holding Russian passports. Diplomatic restrictions against Russia were first imposed by EU leaders in March 2014, when sanctions were also imposed against persons responsible for actions against Ukraine's territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence. Economic sanctions against Russia were announced in July and September 2014. Their duration remains linked to the complete implementation of the Minsk agreements.

EU restrictive measures are kept under constant review. On 15 March 2019, the EU added eight Russian officials to the list of those subject to a travel ban and asset freeze for their role in the seizure of Ukrainian vessels and their crews in November 2018.

The EU has provided humanitarian, early recovery and, increasingly, development assistance in response to the conflict in the east of Ukraine and internal displacement. This includes €141.8 million of humanitarian assistance and projects on humanitarian demining, psychosocial support, and support to the OSCE Special Monitoring Mission (SMM). The EU and its Member States are the biggest contributors to the OSCE SMM, which monitors the implementation of the Minsk agreements. The €50 million "EU Support to the east of Ukraine" programme supports the implementation of reforms in conflict affected areas of Donetsk and Luhansk oblasts.

The EU is also stepping up its support to the Sea of Azov region to alleviate the impact on the local economy and communities of Russia's destabilising actions in the Sea of Azov and the conflict. This includes: (i) increasing the EU's presence through an EU programme office in Mariupol; (ii) improving connections, including feasibility studies for rail and road rehabilitation projects, in cooperation with international financial institutions; (iii) an additional €10 million to the ongoing "EU Support to the east of Ukraine" programme assists local economic diversification and small businesses, local civil society and citizens' involvement in decision-making. Additional support (€6 million) is also envisaged for demining and psychosocial assistance. The European financial institutions also channel investments to conflict-affected areas; the European Investment Bank has provided a package of €200 million for the early recovery of small-scale damaged infrastructure.
