

SPAIN

The Spanish National Coalition gathers around 200 stakeholders such as IT companies, education and training institutions, trade unions, foundations, associations and governmental organisations. The coalition is actively shaping the debate on developing a digital talent pool in Spain, promoting employability thanks to digital skills.

Share of activities by target groups (as %)

Digital skills...

Other priority

Attracting girls and women to ICT

Main partners

Red.es – public entity, the Digital Agenda for Spain

ASTI

Google

Microsoft

Google

UGT and CCOO - trade unions

Accenture

Samsung

Grupo Eulen

Seresco

see more at: http://bit.ly/NC_ES

Coordinator

AMETIC - Association of Electronics, Information and Communications Technologies, Telecommunications and Digital Content Companies

Main achievements and projects

- July 2017 - launch of the Spanish Digital Skills and Jobs Coalition.
- 'Manifiesto on the digital transformation of the Spanish digital economy through development of the digital talent' - document created together with trade unions: UGT, CCOO, includes proposals for Spain to successfully embrace digital transformation.
- The first ever Spanish Digital Skills Awards took place on 20 June during the 1st Forum of the Alliance for the development of digital talent. 83 projects were submitted in five categories. Next edition in 2019.
- Working closely with the government on trainings in digital skills and directing funds for this purpose e.g. Red.es (support programme); the Ministry of Employment and Social Security (call for training).

Website and social media

http://bit.ly/NC_ES

@DigitalSkillsES

