Venue:

Parlamentarium, Brussels

From Tuesday, 25 September, 2018 to Wednesday, 26 September, 2018

[1] The European Commission and European Parliament are co-organising on Tuesday 25 and Wednesday 26 September 2018 the Science is Wonder-ful ! event / European Researchers' Night at the Parlamentarium.

During two days, visitors can discover sciences, research and the Marie Skłodowska-Curie programme.

'Science is Wonder-ful!' is the perfect opportunity to popularise science towards children and to tease their curiosity. Kids from 6 years old on can discover hands-on experiments and meet with scientists who will describe how the life of a research is. Watch last year's video [2].

The entrance is free. Due to capacity limitation, it is recommended to register in advance.

The European Commission organise bus shuttles to facilitate the participation of schools in Belgium to the event at any time on 25 and 26 September 2018. Interested?
