

Sustainability of European Food Systems: Best practices from European regions

12 - 12 Oct 2022

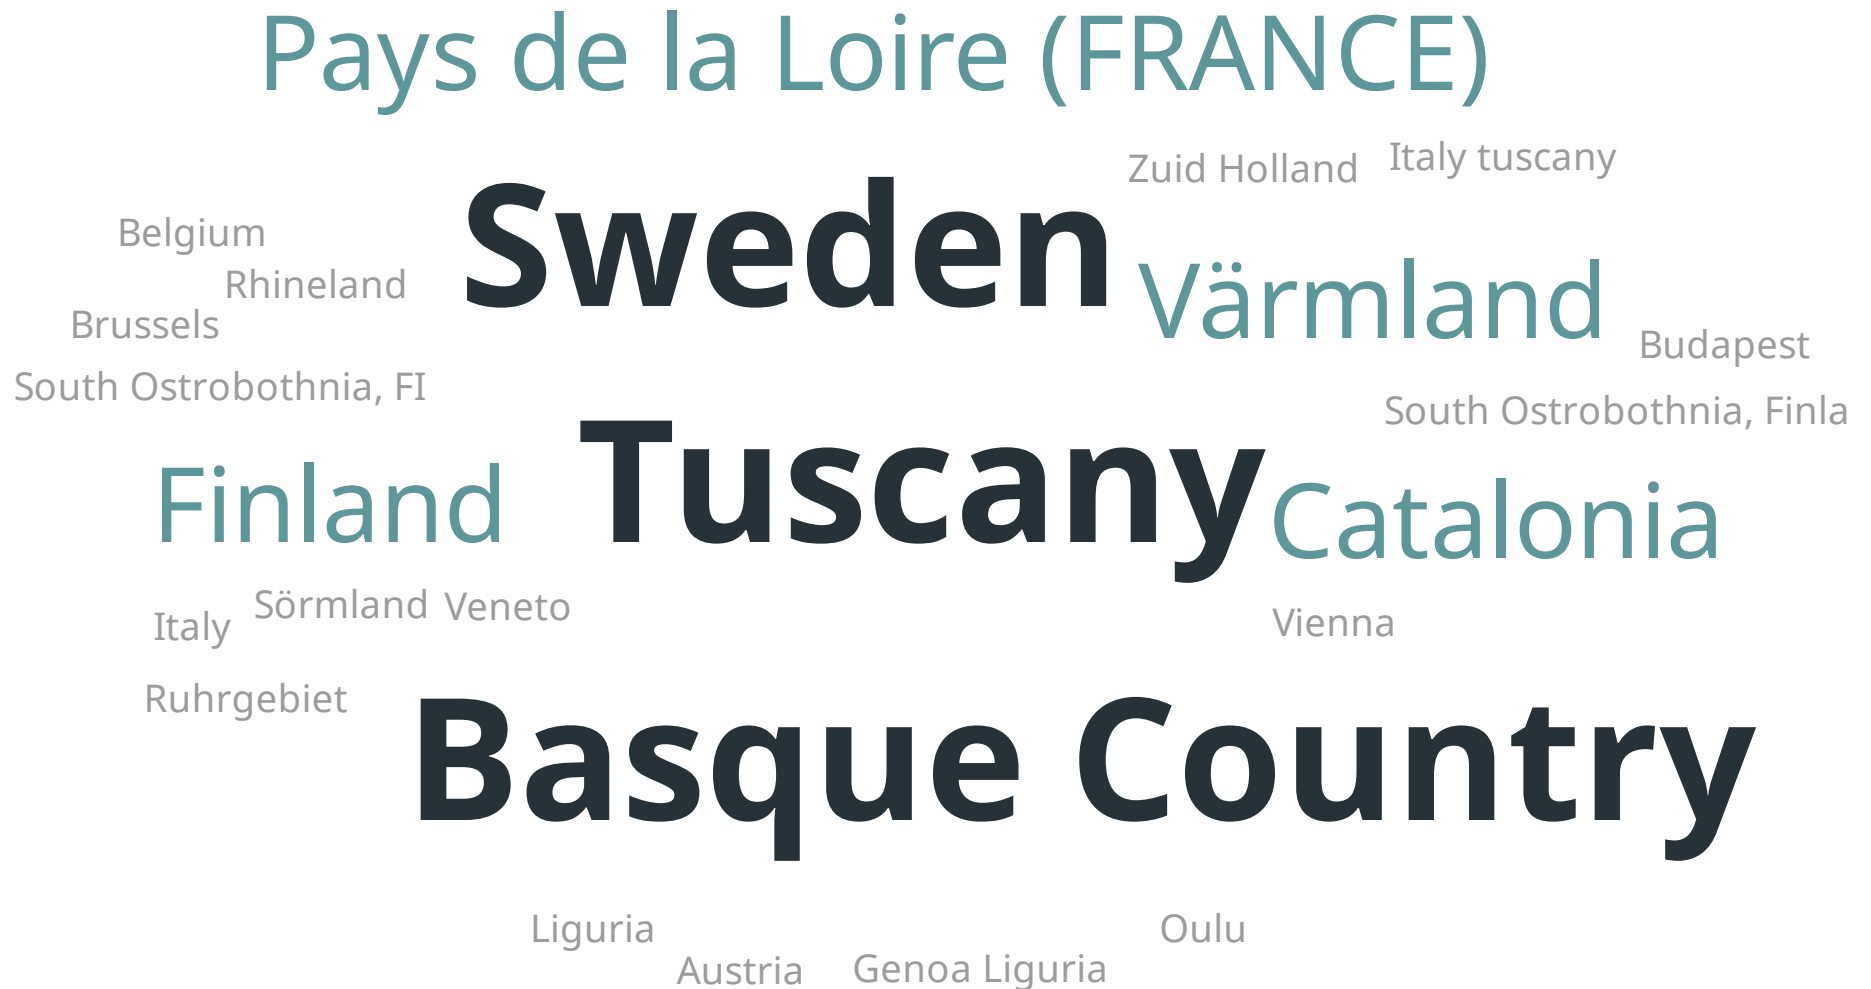

Poll results

Table of contents

- What region and country do you come from?
- Prior to this session, were you aware of the European Partnership for Safe and Sustainable Food Systems launched by the European Commission in the framework of Horizon Europe?
- Survey
- The development of the bio-economy in the EU will foster the sustainability of our food systems.
- Please, share the word that better represents the major challenge for EU food system sustainability
- Please, share with us a sentence that describes your main takeaway from this session

What region and country do you come from?

0 2 8

030

Prior to this session, were you aware of the European Partnership for Safe and Sustainable Food Systems launched by the European Commission in the framework of Horizon Europe?

Yes

No

Survey (1/2)

0 2 8

What is the EU organic surface target for 2030?

20%

25% ✓

30%

35%

Survey (2/2)

0 2 8

How many million tons of food do you think are wasted every year in the EU?

68

0 %

78

25 %

88 ✓

50 %

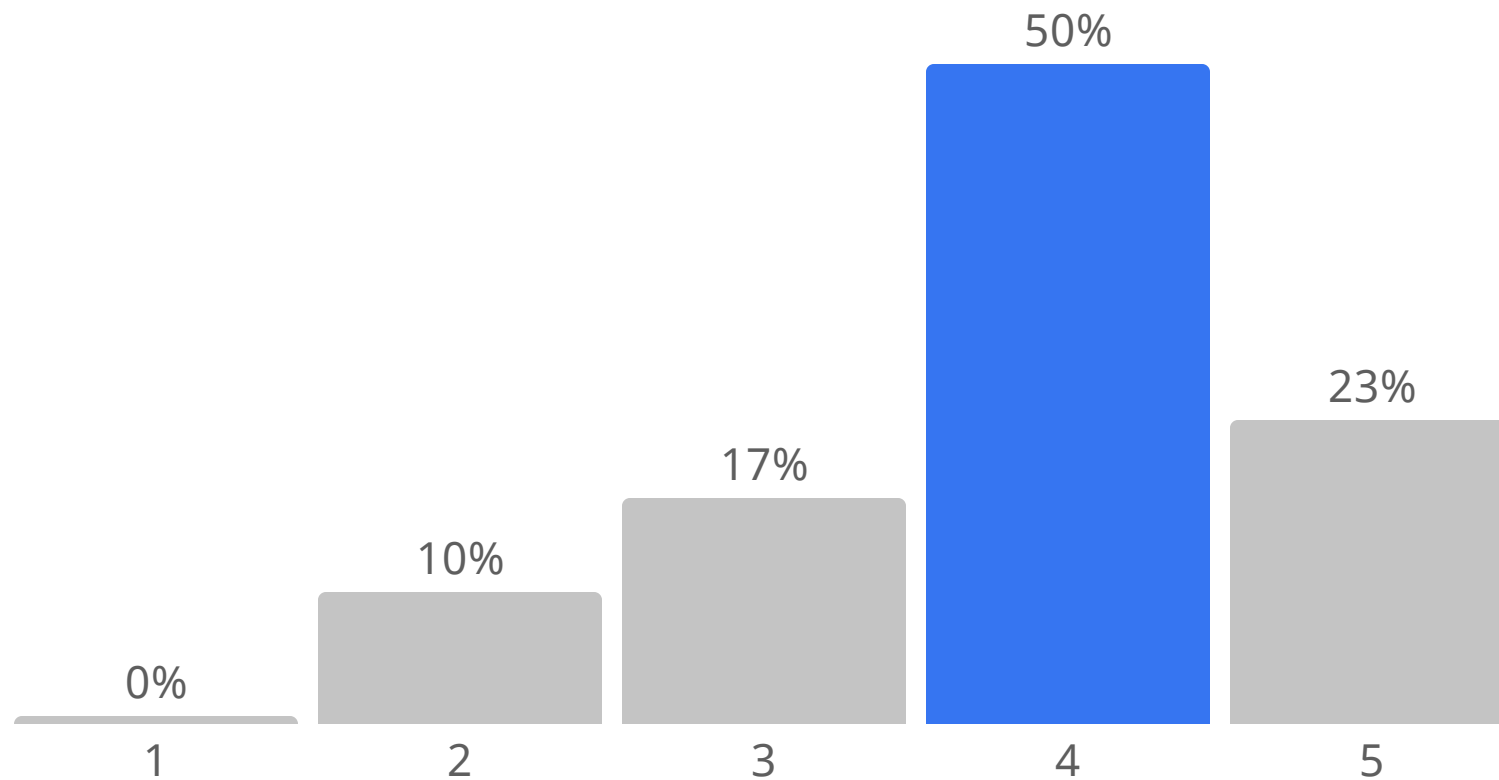

98

25 %

The development of the bio-economy in the EU will foster the sustainability of our food systems.

030

Score: 3.9

Please, share the word that better represents the major challenge for EU food system sustainability

0 2 4

Please, share with us a sentence that describes your main takeaway from this session (1/2)

- We can work on SFS in the regions, but not without a EU-context !
- Sustainable Food Systems could be a great help
- Awareness does not necessarily affect action
- Problems and solutions are common to all of us.
- We are all in this together.
- That we need to improve on how we communicate this important topic to everyone
- holistic food systems at the heart of
- EU are the key for the transition
- It is important to involve all the different actors and think as ecosystems
- We need a lot of active action to make a real impact on the awareness and especially behaviour towards sustainability.
- Work and development on all levels is needed
- I can make a difference as a consumer.
- Possibilities for a sustainable future
- Stimulating

Please, share with us a sentence that describes your main takeaway from this session (2/2)

0 2 0

- Resilience depends on multilevel governance of the food system
- awareness
- Working on awareness and prevention is key
- Interesting discussions, good to see some research supporting practices.
- to increase awareness reduce junk food marketing
- A change is possible
- Partnership on sustainable food system
- Informative and engaging
- Awareness of consumers is key