Strengthening institutions at national, regional and local level
Breaking down the barriers to economic development between countries and regions
Promoting grassroots participation in regional development programmes
A long term vision based on stable funding

European Regional Policy, an inspiration for Countries outside the EU?