PERSONAL SKILLS

During the course of my life, I have acquired a good ability to write, comment on current events, read books and present them, intervene in public debates with an excellent ability to summarize and contextualize arguments; chair and coordinate a discussion, conclude it taking into account the remarks and proposals of the participants, assigning them objectives and setting the steps for verification and evaluation.

MOTHER TONGUE

Italian

OTHER LANGUAGES

English.

Reading skills: good,

Writing skills: good,

Spoken interaction: elementary

INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

My work has largely been conducted with other people and in heterogeneous situations where communication is essential. Political assignments have allowed me to acquire important knowledge on the functioning of Italian and European institutions, as well as on problems and strategies to solve them, developing the necessary interpersonal skills.

ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS

During my administration, the Department of Health of the Region of Tuscany has always demonstrated an excellent ability to control budgets, and has also been at the forefront in guaranteeing adequate levels of health services for the population. These successes have been achieved above all through the implementation of a rational organisation of services and their continuous updating and innovation. My experience as president of the region, and therefore as the first person in charge of environmental and health emergencies in the region, has enabled me to develop organisational skills even in relation to unexpected situations and extraordinary events.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

I use regularly computer, Ipad, Iphone;

ARTISTIC SKILLS

Good knowledge of Tuscan museums, theatres and orchestras;

OTHER SKILLS

Sailboat navigation;

DRIVING LICENCE

In possession of a car driving licence.
