Youth guarantee in Finland – experiences and results

Janne Savolainen
Senior Specialist
Ministry of Economic Affairs and Employment

The average number of unemployed young per month

Some of our challenges

- Structural change in the Finnish economy
- Mismatch at the labour market
- Challenges in the knowledge base of the workforce
- Aging population

Youth guarantee – from national to local level

Phase one 2005-2013: PES aims to offer services for young jobseekers within 3 months

Phase two 2013-2016: Government's spearhead program. Public-Private-People-Partnership

Phase three 2016-: Government's spearhead program: One-Stop-Shop network nationwide

Youth Guarantee

as from 1st of January 2013

Pillars of the Youth Guarantee:

Education guarantee

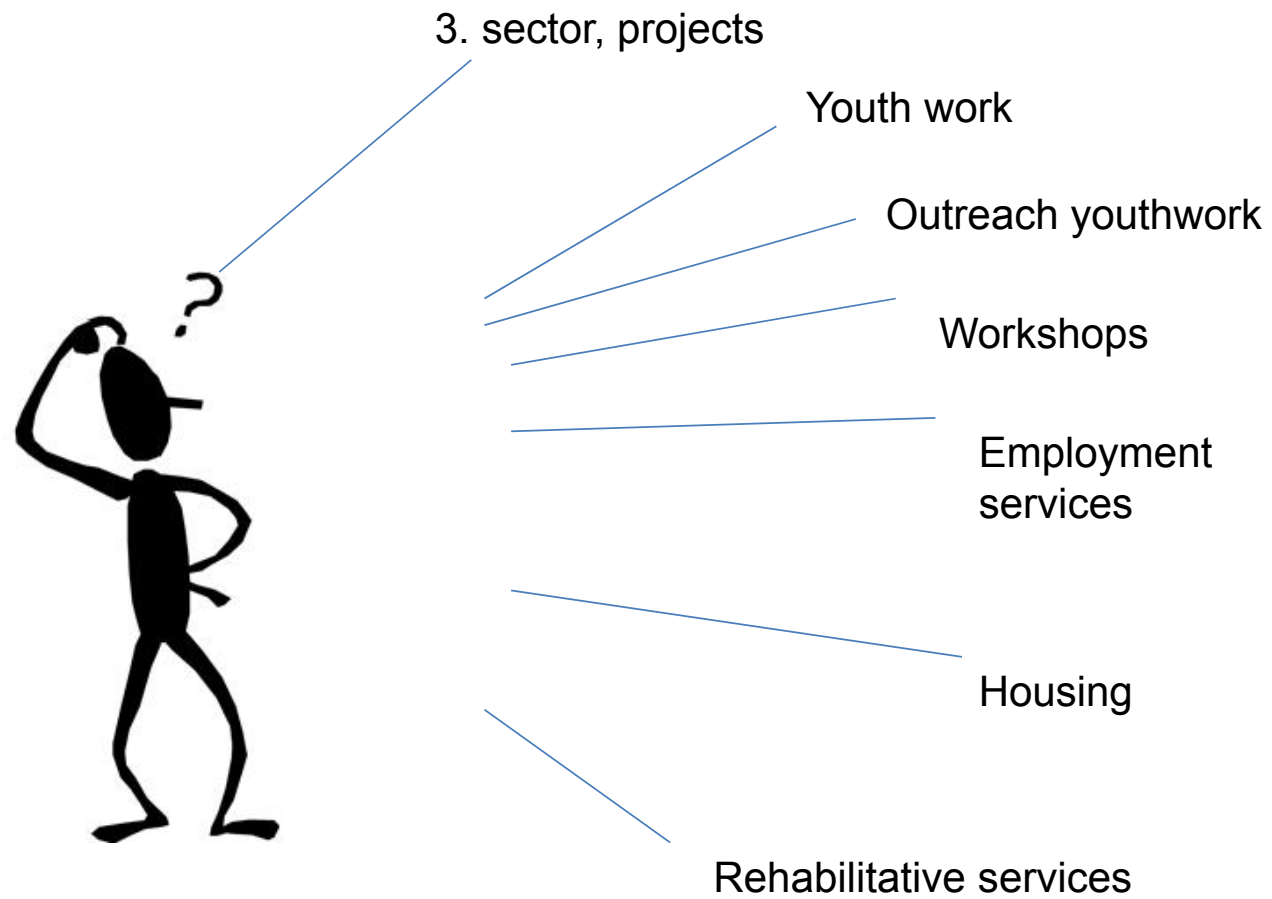

Skills programme for young adults

Employment and Economic Development services for youth (PES services)

Rehabilitative services including municipal social and health services

Other individual services for young people, such as youth outreach work and youth workshop activities

Still

One-stop-shops

- What?
 - Low threshold service point – no need for appointments
 - Brings together services from public-private and third sector
- Why?
 - Working life is changing
 - Fragmented services
 - Resources are limited
 - Youth themselves want f2f service
- How?
 - Mutual understanding of what we are doing
 - Close cooperation at the national and local level

Youth guarantee phase III: One-Stop-Shop Guidance centers

- Easy access service points for young people
 - first pilots 2010-2011
 - ESF-funding since 2014
 - municipalities have established service points also with operational funding
- Based on surveys and studies
 - young people have complex problems requiring cooperation and coordination of the services
 - experiences from the youth guarantee 2013-2015

Central elements

- Target group is young people under 30
- Easy access service
- Multi-sectoral information, advice, guidance and support using basic services and broad network of partners
