

MoveS seminar Estonia

New types of work and their relation to social security and social security coordination

Tallinn, 10 October 2019

Suur Ameerika 1, Tallinn

Tamme hall

Language: Estonian-English, Eesti-Inglise

Funded by the

This seminar is organised by MoveS in collaboration with the Estonian national expert Ave Henberg.

DRAFT AGENDA

Morning session – MODERN FORMS OF WORK AND SOCIAL SECURITY COORDINATION

10.00-10.15	Introduction to the seminar Ave Henberg, MoveS national expert
10.15-10.45	Modern forms of work in Estonia and possible future regulation Ave Henberg, MoveS national expert
10.45-11.00	Discussion
11.00-11.30	Modern forms of work and social security coordination, possible (future) problems Nicolas Rennuy, MoveS visiting expert, University of York
11.30-12.00	Presentation of the European Commission (tbd) Axel Specker, European Commission
12.00-12.30	Panel discussion
12.30	Lunch

Afternoon session - POSTING

13.15-13.20	Introduction and context Ave Henberg, MoveS national expert
13.20-13.50	Recent CJEU case law on posting Herwig Verschueren, MoveS visiting expert, University of Antwerp
13.50-14.00	Discussion

MoveS is an EC-funded network of independent experts from 32 European countries coordinated by Efttheia and Deloitte with the support of University of Ljubljana and the University of Poitiers.

14.00-14.50	Posting from Estonia: practice and problems Views of Social Insurance Board, Tax and Customs Board; Trade Unions and Estonian Employers Confederation (tbd)
14.50-15.20	Amendments to the posting directive Carita Rammus, European Commission
15.20-16.00	Panel discussion
16.00-16.30	Wrap-up and closure