Introduction

The Eurostat Labour Market Policy (LMP) database collects information on labour market interventions implemented by each of the EU Member States and Norway. Data are collected according to a comprehensive methodology, which classifies interventions into three main types – services, measures and supports – and into nine detailed categories according to the type of action (see below). Readers are recommended to refer to the LMP methodology ¹ for details of this classification scheme and definitions of terms used in this report.

The LMP database collects quantitative data on expenditure and participants for each intervention. These are published annually and are available online from the Eurostat website ². The quantitative data are complemented by a set of qualitative information describing each intervention. This represents an invaluable source of reference to support a harmonised approach to the classification of national interventions and to help interpret the detailed figures on expenditure and participants. These qualitative data are compiled into a series of Labour market policy statistics: Qualitative Reports and produced as separate volumes for each country/year.

The reports all have the same structure:

- Part A Introduction

- Part B Inventory of interventions - a list of all interventions reported for the relevant year, grouped by type of action and including a national language version of the intervention name.

- Part C Qualitative information by intervention - presents the available information about each intervention in three sections: Identification, Description, and Supplementary information. The Description contains seven sub-sections: Aim, Beneficiaries/participants, Action/instrument, Financing/support, Eligibility, Legal basis, and Recent changes. The Supplementary information contains eight sub-sections describing the breakdown of expenditure, target groups, the treatment of unemployment spells, receipt of benefits, planned duration and other characteristics of the intervention. Together, these items summarise the qualitative information collected through the LMP questionnaire.

- Part D Reference data - provides a description of the populations considered as reference data within the LMP database, giving national definitions of those considered as registered unemployed and other groups registered with the public employment services (PES).

- Part E Abbreviations

The qualitative information in the LMP database is updated annually with the contribution of delegates from each country and Eurostat cannot take responsibility for the validity of the content. The reports are published annually by Eurostat in English and reports for other years that are not currently in the online library can be produced on request.

Type of action: 8.1.1 - Unemployment insurance

Description

Aim:

To compensate insured workers for loss of wages during unemployment and to provide income support during active job search.

Beneficiaries:

Workers who are involuntarily unemployed and who have been employed and paid contributions for a minimum duration.

Action/Instrument:

The unemployment benefit protects workers in a situation of involuntary unemployment, providing compensation for lack of remuneration.

The entitlement period is established according to the beneficiary's age and the duration of the contributory career: 150 days, 210 or 330 days for beneficiaries <30 (and whose contributory career is less than 15 months; between 15 and 24 or more than 24, respectively); 180 days, 330 or 420 days for beneficiaries aged 30-39 (according to the periods referred to); 210, 360 or 540 days for beneficiaries aged 40-49; 270, 480 or 540 days for beneficiaries aged 50+. Beneficiaries aged less than 30 and 30-39 are credited +30 days for each period of 5 years; those aged 40-49 are credited +45 days and those aged 50+ are credited +60 days).

To qualify for this benefit, the worker must be in a situation of involuntary unemployment, be capable of, and available for work, be registered with the Employment Centre in his/her residence area and have at least 360 days of employed work with the corresponding payment of contributions in the 24 months prior to unemployment.

The daily amount corresponds to 65% of the reference wage.

The monthly amount cannot be inferior to 100% of the IAS (or the value of the reference wage), nor exceed 2,5 the value of the IAS or 75% of the Reference wage.

10% increase in the case of households where both spouses or partners are receiving unemployment benefit and have children or their dependents and single parents receiving unemployment benefit.

The entitlement to Unemployment Benefit is suspended during, for instance, the exercise of a salaried professional activity or the attendance to a vocational training course with payment of a training compensation/subsidy.

The Unemployment Benefit ceases, for instance, when the worker undertakes employment or professional occupation during a continuing period of 3 years; on refusal to undertake a suitable job or necessary work, or a vocational training; in a situation of retirement due to invalidity; or when the worker reaches the legal age for retirement pension.
