This resulted in working agreements with Cyprus at a practical and ministerial level. The working agreements with Romania, Bulgaria and Poland were reconfirmed. The Dutch embassy in Bucharest, Sofia and Warsaw recruited local employees to support cooperation between Dutch and local implementing agencies.
- In 2014 a cooperation agreement was signed with France on further cooperation to exchange of death data and informing mutual customers.

EHFCN's activities aim to support members and associates entities in their work of prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution and redress of healthcare fraud, corruption and waste. EHFCN organises conferences and training seminars which all aim at promoting the share of best practice and encouraging the exchange of information, the development of common working standards and networking with peers. ZN hosts this year's EHFCN conference. Since all Dutch healthcare insurers are members of ZN, they are all represented in the EHFCN.

ZN also participates in the International Association of Mutual benefits (AIM). AIM strives to defend the access to healthcare for all through solidarity-based and non-for profit health insurance. AIM's mission is to provide a platform for members to exchange on common issues and to represent their interests and values in the European and international Institutions. AIM has several groups working on specific themes. Until recently ZN has actively cooperated in the group of countering healthcare fraud and corruption.

Data exchange: "We are not automatically entitled to engage in enquiries into possible benefit fraud in other countries. We are limited to visiting the claimant at his/her address, and otherwise we have to engage our foreign partner institution in the investigation. Through a extended network of bilateral agreements these requests necessitate the cooperation of the partner institution. E.g. with Germany we have an agreement with Finanzkontrolle Schwarzarbeit der Bundeszollverwaltung on these issues, while for Belgium and Luxemburg we cooperate via the Benelux Council."

1.22. Portugal

Bilateral agreements combating fraud and error

- Furthermore, a number of cooperation exercises with some Member States — primarily Belgium and the Netherlands — have been carried out in relation to posting. These exercises were an attempt, on the basis of the new elements of information known to those Member States as host States for posted workers, to demonstrate the existence of substantial activity in Portugal on the part of the various undertakings. In this connection, and whenever there is justification for doing so, Portugal has annulled some Portable Documents A1 and enlisted the cooperation of the relevant institutions to prevent the emergence of periods where the workers are not covered by the legislation of the Member State of origin or the host Member State.
- In addition to those referred to in the answer to question II.2 above special attention should be drawn to the cooperation activities carried out in 2014 with the following Member States pursuant to Article 76(4) of Regulation (EC) No 883/2004:
- Portugal – Switzerland
 - On 29-31 October 2014 a bilateral meeting of experts from the Portuguese institution competent for pensions (the National Pensions Centre) and experts from the counterpart Swiss institution (OAI/E, the disability insurance office for insured people living abroad) was held with a view to defining measures making it possible to minimise the main problems with cooperation between those institutions in the framework of the application of the EC Regulations on coordination of social security systems.
 - The meeting produced significant contributions to improving the services provided by both institutions: emphasis is to be placed on the designation of contact points in the framework of the fight against pension fraud, specifically invalidity pension fraud.
- Portugal – Ireland
 - In 2014 the ISS, IP responded to a series of queries addressed to it by the Department of Social Protection in Ireland in the framework of an ongoing investigation into “marriages of convenience” in that Member State between young Portuguese women and citizens of third countries. According to the Irish authorities, a significant increase was recorded in the number of applications from young Portuguese women for the PPSN (Personal Public Service Number) so they could “marry” citizens of third countries who could in this manner thus obtain resident status for cash.
 - The Irish Department of Justice is currently examining this issue with the Portuguese authorities with a view to stepping up its fight against this phenomenon.
- Portugal – the Netherlands
 - In 2014, the close cooperation on information sharing between the two Member States continued with a view to preventing and combating Fraud and Error, specifically as regards the issue of under-declaration of salaries to Portuguese social security by undertakings with workers posted to the Netherlands.

 - In the area of pensions, the Social Insurance Agency is working to strengthen cooperation with the institutions of certain states implementing the coordination regulations, for example as regards proving custody of children. Information is exchanged with the Czech Republic in the administration of pensions. We have not experienced conflicts between the law on personal data protection and cross-border information exchange.

- Family benefits
 - A bilingual form has been developed in cooperation with HMRC in the United Kingdom to facilitate information exchange and to prevent and detect fraud.

1.25. Spain

Bilateral agreements combating fraud and error

- Bilaterally negotiating collaboration agreements with liaison bodies of other Member States, in order to obtain information relating to pensioners of one state who reside in the other, with the objective of monitoring the proper implementation of the priority rules for benefits in kind set out in Article 25 of Regulation (EC) No 883/04.
 - Meetings or conversations are being held with the liaison bodies of various states (Belgium, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Poland, United Kingdom, Italy) to put in place agreements for the exchange of information to help in the monitoring of deaths, top-up benefits and health cover.
 - Such Data Exchange collaboration agreements have already been concluded between INSS (Instituto Nacional de la Seguridad Social), Spain, and liaison bodies from other Member States: Sweden (signed 2019., the Netherlands, Switzerland and France.
 - With regard to health cover, it has been discovered that there are pensioners from other countries living in Spain who, instead of applying for their health care entitlement to be exported to Spain, expect to be eligible for health care from Spain because they are resident there, shying away from the provisions of Article 25 of Regulation (EC) No 883/04.
- A collaboration agreement also exists between Spain and Germany for the electronic exchange of information on pensioners of both states.
- With the information provided by Germany, we begun a process of cleaning this data, with the aim of verifying cases of people whose health care should, under the priority rules, be funded by the country paying their pension, as they are currently eligible for health care under Spanish law only because they are resident in Spain.

1.26. Sweden

Bilateral/multilateral agreements combating fraud and error

- The Swedish Social Insurance Agency is part of two networks, within the EU, combating abuse of the insurance – Working Group European Benefit fraud and Nordic Working group against benefit fraud. The Agency has in cooperation with Finland and Norway carried out controls regarding sickness benefit. The agency investigated if the citizen received income from work at the same time as they had sickness benefit. The Swedish Pensions Agency has electronic exchange of data (personal circumstances – date of death, civil status) with Finland, Poland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, the United Kingdom and Germany through Memoranda of Understanding. The purpose is mainly to quicken the administration to avoid incorrect payments. The agency plans to conclude agreements and establish electronic exchange with Poland and the United Kingdom during 2015. The Swedish Pensions Agency is also discussing bilateral exchanges with Spain. Once launched, the EESSI system is expected to be valuable in limiting fraud and error.

Overview of ongoing bilateral work (exchanges of dates of death)

Dates of death are currently being exchanged with Germany and considerable progress has been made in this regard with Italy. The main new developments relate to contacts with the Austrian and Danish partners. Our colleagues in the Pensionsversicherungsanstalt (Austrian Pension Insurance Institution - PVA) reported that they have given a mandate to their operator, Deutsche Post, to conclude an agreement on exchange of dates of death with Switzerland. Along similar lines, a draft Memorandum of Understanding with our colleagues in Udbetaling Danmark (UDK) is in preparation. Technical issues are also being examined with our Spanish partners from the Institut Nacional de la Seguridad Social (National Social Security Institute - INSS).

2.2. Belgium

Summary of replies from all sectors. In Annex III, only bilateral treaties under international law were reported. However, a third bilateral treaty was signed in 2015 and approved by the Chamber (Parliament) in May 2016, but has not yet entered into force. Moreover, in order to be fully operational, these treaties, within the legal framework established by the Framework Agreement (Treaty) and the administrative arrangements (implementing measures), require the social security institutions concerned in each branch of social security, and the relevant social inspection services, to conclude cooperation agreements. Although not relating to the year 2015, Belgium notes that the Secretary of State is planning a round of negotiations leading to the conclusion of Memorandums of Understanding with Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Slovakia and other countries, covering social security, and pay and working conditions for employees and the self-employed (see policy guidance document of 2 June 2016 issued by the Secretary of State responsible for the fight against social security fraud — Doc 54 0020/063). The Memorandums of Understanding should be aimed at strengthening cooperation between inspectorates with a view, in particular, to more effectively monitoring current European rules. They should also be aimed at improving the exchange of information between the inspection services concerned. This round of negotiations should start by the end of 2016. Otherwise, all bilateral or multilateral initiatives (Benelux) mentioned in the previous 'fraud and error' report (published in 2015 – reference year 2014) are still in place and should be taken into account in the 2016 report, but do not seem to have been reported in the nomenclature (Treaty/agreements) of Annex II.

As regards the pensions sector, it should also be noted that the competent institution (Service fédéral des Pensions/Federale Pensioendienst – SFP/FPD) states that it has concluded agreements with Germany (DRV 2011) (which came into effect in 2015), the Netherlands (SVB 2011) (2016), France (CNAV 2016) and Luxembourg (CNAP 2017). In 2019 it has also added Italy (test and production). In addition, the SFP/FPD has had preliminary contacts with Spain and Poland. The SFP/FPD started testing with Spain and hopes to sign soon the agreement with Spain if the results are good.

Benelux. In 2015 the Committee of Benelux Ministers made a recommendation on the development of multilateral cooperation to combat cross-border social security fraud at Benelux and EU levels. The recommendation was brought to the attention of the European Union. It is a political document which lacks binding legal force. The Committee of Ministers may make recommendations for the needs of the Benelux. These recommendations are not legally binding, but impose a certain moral obligation on Member States to bring their legislation into line. The recommendation stresses the need for a legal framework which enables comprehensive cross-border cooperation between the various inspection services in the fight against social security fraud. The recommendation lists three specific objectives (Article 2). The governments of the Benelux countries will take all steps to ensure that the Benelux Union can play a pioneering role within the EU:

- to combat unfair competition and social dumping internationally, through better cooperation and exchange of data;
- to take whatever measures are possible and necessary to remedy certain shortcomings in the regulatory framework or problems affecting cooperation;
- to seek, both within the Benelux countries and in conjunction with other countries, the necessary support for European measures which are appropriate for the purposes set out in the first paragraph above. In order to achieve these objectives, the governments of the Benelux countries will take initiatives at both Benelux and EU level (Articles 3 and 4).

By way of example, regarding benefit fraud, the Benelux countries agreed to exchange data in the autumn with a view to detecting benefit fraud. As a pilot project, the Belgian social security bodies and the competent authorities in the Netherlands will initially exchange data relating to employment and unemployment. This information should make it possible to identify the persons who actually commit benefit fraud. The fraud may involve receiving benefits in one country and a salary/wage in another country, or receiving benefits from two countries. Luxembourg will join this initiative at a later date.

As regards on-the-spot checks, in 2015 the Benelux countries signed a declaration in which they pledged to work together to combat cross-border social security fraud and undertake joint measures to combat social dumping, fictitious companies, posting fraud, benefit fraud and fraudulent temping agencies. Recently, the Dutch and Belgian inspection services jointly inspected a temping agency which has cross-border activity in the construction sector. Other on-the-spot checks are planned at Benelux level (e.g. in the transport sector).

Bilateral agreement or bilateral cooperation arrangement with other EU or EEA Member State(s) entered into for the purposes of combating fraud and error within the framework of Regulations (EC) Nos 883/2004 and 987/2009 on the coordination of social security systems
Title of the agreement	Treaty between the Kingdom of Belgium and the Kingdom of the Netherlands on the development of cooperation and administrative assistance on social security
Names of the countries that are party to the Agreement	Belgium and Netherlands
Brief summary of the relevant provisions (in English)	Il s'agit d'un accord-cadre au sens du droit international public (traité) qui a pour base juridique principale l'article 8,2 du règlement n°883/2004. Le présent Traité s'applique aux personnes relevant du champ d'application personnel du Règlement ainsi qu'aux personnes qui demandent ou perçoivent des prestations d'assistance sociale visée par la législation hollandaise sur l'assistance sociale ainsi qu'aux prestations belges légales, non contributives, soumises à des conditions de ressources et qui sont allouées aux personnes en situation de besoin. De manière générale, ce traité entend renforcer l'assistance mutuelle entre les institutions de sécurité sociale des deux Etats membres dans le cadre de la lutte contre les fraudes et erreurs. De manière plus précise, ce traité prévoit les bases juridiques en vue de permettre le rapprochement et comparaison de fichiers de données entre les institutions de sécurité sociale des deux Etats membres. En outre, ce traité prévoit une coopération en matière de prestations (lutter contre les cumuls de prestations pouvant conduire au refus d'octroi des prestations à leur suspension voir suppression), en matière de recouvrement de cotisations sociales et de répétition d'indu. Le traité instaure une coopération en matière de contrôle entre les services d'inspection/de contrôle des deux parties par la possibilité de mettre en œuvre des contrôles conjoints sur le territoire des deux parties. Enfin, le traité renforce la coopération en matière de contrôle du détachement des travailleurs en conférant une force juridique contraignante à la décision A1 adoptée par la commission administrative pour la coordination des systèmes de sécurité sociale. Ce traité fixe, par conséquent, le cadre juridique instituant la coopération précitée. Sur le plan de la mise en œuvre, un arrangement administratif déclinant les modalités d'exécution entre les deux parties a été conclu. Sur la base du cadre juridique ainsi institué par l'accord-cadre et l'arrangement administratif, les institutions de sécurité sociale sont amenées à conclure entre elles des conventions de coopération.
