

Fair green and digital transitions, research

Fair transition working papers, policy briefs and seminars

December 2023

Fair transition seminars have a lead speaker on a particular forefront topic, in a similar style of Ted Talks, to feed analysis and research programming and stimulate further debate, followed by a Q&A session.

List of seminars

- Shaping the future of EU governance: Towards a just transition – Dr Sebastiano Sabato, 19.06.2023
- Fair energy policy for crises and transitions – Dr Tina Fawcett, 15.06.2023
- Equity, consumption, and the path to sustainable welfare – Prof Milena Buchs, 24.05.2023
- Living Well within Limits – Prof Julia Steinberger, 12.05.2023
- Governance via algorithm? Rethinking the role of technology for fair and just societies – Prof Karen Yeung, 02.05.2023
- Future-fit housing policy: Social and financial dimensions – Prof Sebastian Kohl, 19.04.2023
- Overcoming populist challenges to social cohesion – Prof Vivien Schmidt, 05.04.2023
- The relevance of regional divides for the green transition – Prof Claudius Gräbner and Jakob Hafele, 08.03.2023
- Meeting basic needs within planetary boundaries – Anna Coote, 22.02.2023
- How digital and social media shape public perception – Dr Joan Donovan, 25.01.2023
- The interplay of digitalisation on the green transition – Dr Steffen Lange and Prof Tilman Santarius, 14.12.2022