Registration (part 1 of 2)

Text at the top to explain what Mutual Recognition is.

Authorized Economic Operators are asked to provide their Name, Member State issuing the AEO certificate, EORI Number, and their Primary Address that was used in their AEO registration with their Member State.

Companies are also asked to provide the Manufacturer Identification numbers (MIDs) associated with the Primary Address.

The ? icon provides a link to additional information about MIDs.
Registration (part 2 of 2)

Users will scroll down to continue their registration process.

Companies will have the option to identify additional addresses and those additional address’ MIDs. For each MID to be considered for benefits, the corresponding address must be provided.

Companies can provide the names and email addresses of authorized users who will have access to manage this registration after it has been approved by a CBP official.
Registration (Add Address)

When users click on the Add Address button, they will receive a pop up asking for the additional address information.

At the bottom, the list of Manufacturer IDs is listed.

Users who enter a MID must click the Add MID button. The icon allows users to delete if a MID was entered with an error.

The icon provides a link to additional information about MIDs.

The second image to the right provides an example of a MID entered successfully before clicking Ok.
Registration (Add User)

When users click on the + Add User, they will receive a pop up asking for the email address, first and last name of the authorized users.

After completing the Add User form, click the Ok button. To add additional users, click the + Add User again.

Once the registration has been approved by a CBP official, users identified as Authorized Users in this registration will receive a confirmation of the registration’s approval and a separate email with instructions on how to create a password so they can login.
Registration (Completed)

To the right is a completed registration with one additional address and one identified authorized user.

Users should read the Privacy Statement prior to clicking submit for a full understanding of how the provided data may be used.
Registration
(Confirmation)

After clicking submit, users will be provided a copy of the data included in the registration. Users are welcome to use the internet browser's Print Page functionality to preserve a copy of the registration if they wish.
Decision Email: Rejected

Authorized users will receive an email indicating the decision of CBP regarding their EORI registration.

Rejected Emails could be for one of the following reasons:
• No record of the EORI number in the CBP system
• Duplicate records, the EORI number has already been registered
• Rejection from a CBP official

In the even the registration is rejected by a CBP official, a customized reason from the CBP official will be provided.
