

CONTINUOUSLY OPEN CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR THE SELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE “SINGLE PLATFORM FOR OPEN ROAD TESTING AND PRE-DEPLOYMENT OF COOPERATIVE, CONNECTED, AUTOMATED AND AUTONOMOUS MOBILITY”

1. Background and Scope

On 17 May 2018, the European Commission adopted its Communication ‘On the road to automated mobility: An EU strategy for mobility of the future’¹ (COM(2018) 283 final), whereby the Commission announced its intention to establish a single EU-wide platform grouping all relevant public and private stakeholders to coordinate open road testing of Connected and Automated Mobility (CAM) and make the link with pre-deployment activities.

The Commission’s Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (‘DG MOVE’), in agreement with other Commission departments, namely the Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (‘DG CNECT’), Directorate-General for Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs (‘DG GROW’) and Directorate-General for Research and Innovation (‘DG RTD’), has set up an informal group of experts, the Single Platform for open road testing and pre-deployment of cooperative, connected, automated and autonomous mobility (“the group”).

The group's task shall be to provide advice and support to the Commission in the field of testing and pre-deployment activities for Cooperative, Connected, Automated and Autonomous Mobility (CCAM). In particular, the group shall assist the Commission in the following CCAM related thematic areas:

- a) The coordination of CCAM research, testing, piloting, and pre-deployment activities, herein collectively referred to as “testing and pre-deployment activities”, in order to increase efficiency and effectiveness, and to integrate existing fora at EU-level.
- b) Within the scope of testing and pre-deployment activities, there are important challenges towards the deployment of CCAM that the group shall address, such as those pertaining to data access and exchange, road transport infrastructure, digital infrastructure, communication technology, cybersecurity, road safety, and legal frameworks, etc.
- c) In its Communication, the European Commission also announced that it would be establishing a partnership under the next European multiannual financial framework to give a clear long-term framework to the strategic planning of research and pre-deployment programmes on driverless mobility at EU and national levels. The single EU-wide platform shall advice on and support the generation of the work programme for this partnership.

In particular within the scope of testing and pre-deployment activities, the group shall advise and support the Commission in the following ways:

- a. To work towards developing an EU agenda for testing, in order to maximise coherence and complementarities between ongoing Research and Innovation (R&I) and testing activities in Europe, exploit synergies and identify possible fields for cooperation. This includes the definition of common priority use cases while keeping testing environments open for a broad range of forward-looking innovative use cases;
- b. To support the coordination of EU supported/financed R&I projects as well as pilots, demonstrations, large-scale testing and pre-deployment activities in Europe, with a focus on cross border issues, related to highly automated vehicles and driving systems for passenger vehicles, freight transport and shared mobility services;
- c. To gather and exchange experiences, best practices and knowledge on pilots, demonstrations and large-scale trials;
- d. To develop a common evaluation methodology in order to allow for comparison of results between tests. This includes establishing key performance indicators and common framework for the assessments of impacts from large-scale trials on safety, on mobility, and on the environment;
- e. To promote collaboration between the various actors involved and, if required, give inputs on pre-normative activities, standards and technical specifications within the European Standards Organisations or any relevant organisation; work towards a safety assessment methodology for Connected and Automated Vehicles (CAVs) that takes into account acceptable behaviour (especially in mixed traffic).
- f. To identify how access to, and exchange of, vehicle and infrastructure data may be facilitated through testing and pre-deployment activities, and assist in establishing a data governance framework in this context, taking into account the provisions and the implementation of relevant Commission Delegated Regulations under the Intelligent Transport Directive (2010/40/EU);
- g. To find, through testing and pre-deployment activities, common ground for addressing technical and legal issues that are relevant to access to, transfer, sharing, use and storage of data, including the use of data by artificial intelligence solutions;
- h. To carry out an assessment of the state-of-play of the cybersecurity framework for CCAM, identify possible gaps to tackle cybersecurity challenges for CCAM both at vehicle system and infrastructure system level, and identify best practices to ensure security of smart vehicles against cyber threats for car manufacturers and other actors of the smart mobility ecosystem. This shall include addressing vulnerability and robustness issues of artificial intelligence systems, and procedures for reporting cyber incidents;
- i. To identify how the physical and digital road infrastructure (such as signage, markings, traffic management centres, digital maps etc.) as well as the data requirements that support road usage applications/services (e.g. traffic regulations translated into a harmonised digital representation) can support automated mobility and improve road safety. The safety aspects to be addressed shall cover areas such as vehicle safety (including ability to cope with the different quality and type of roads, markings and signage), vehicle safety assessment/validation, interaction with other road users and road authorities e.g. by reporting incidents, driver reaction time, driver training, issues linked to mixed traffic conditions in the different physical infrastructures (motorways, urban and suburban roads), and whether, or how, these could lead to a possible classification in a harmonised way. The group will also promote collaboration between the various actors (e.g. public authorities, traffic managers etc.) to ensure high quality standards and accuracy of data.

- j. To support the coordination of activities that focus on telecommunication infrastructure including satellites and cellular networks, the internet of things, data storage, and information and communication technology (ICT) platforms that support CCAM and related services, and identify those hurdles that need to be overcome (e.g. spectrum, silo approaches);
- k. To identify how satellite navigation, notably Galileo and the European Geostationary Navigation Overlay Service (EGNOS), as well as satellite communication, can support the pre-deployment of automated vehicles; monitor progress and propose new activities for research and pre-deployment;
- l. To work on identifying actions to address societal and environmental concerns and support public awareness that are decisive for public acceptance, and consequently the uptake of connected and automated mobility by the diverse user groups;
- m. To review those legal issues that could affect the testing and pre-deployment of CCAM, such as traffic rules, vehicle legislation, processing of data and privacy, and how legal hurdles for testing and pre-deployment could be addressed in the context of projects.

The Commission is calling for applications with a view to selecting members of the group other than Member States' authorities and other public entities.

2. Features of the Group

Should they fail to respect these obligations, the Commission may take all appropriate measures.

On a proposal by and in agreement with DG MOVE the group shall adopt its rules of procedure on the basis of the standard rules of procedure for expert groups.

DG MOVE or, in the case of sub-groups, the Commission department in charge of the subgroup in question, may invite experts with specific expertise with respect to a subject matter on the agenda to take part in the work of the group or sub-groups on an ad hoc basis.

Individuals, organisations, and public entities may be granted an observer status, in compliance with the horizontal rules, by direct invitation. Organisations and public entities appointed as observers shall nominate their representatives. Observers and their representatives may be permitted by the Chair to take part in the discussions of the group and provide expertise. However, they shall not have voting rights and shall not participate in the formulation of recommendations or advice of the group.

Your DOI form shall be made publicly available on the Register of Commission Expert Groups and Other Similar Entities, as long as you are appointed as member of the expert group or sub-group in a personal capacity. Technical measures will be taken to indicate to search engines that your DOI form should not appear in search results.

Annex IV: Guidance for filling in the declaration of interests (DOI) form by individuals applying to be appointed as members of expert groups or sub-groups in a personal capacity

According to the Commission's horizontal rules on expert groups ('the horizontal rules'), Commission expert groups and other similar entities are consultative bodies¹⁹, the role of which is to provide advice and expertise to the Commission and its departments in relation to a number of tasks²⁰. Individuals appointed as members of expert groups or sub-groups in a personal capacity are due to act independently and in the public interest²¹.

In order to ensure the highest integrity of experts, you are requested to duly complete the DOI form. You are required to disclose any circumstances that could give rise to a conflict of interest, i.e. any situation where your interests may compromise or may reasonably be perceived to compromise your capacity to act independently and in the public interest in providing advice to the Commission, in relation to the subject of the work performed by the expert group or sub-group in question. In particular, you must disclose in this DOI form any relevant professional and financial interests.

You must also declare relevant interests of your immediate family members. If interests of your immediate family members are declared, it is your responsibility to inform them about the collection and publication of information on their interests included in this DOI form and to provide them with the privacy statement attached to this guidance, and this at the latest when you file the DOI form with the Commission.

Please submit the completed DOI form to the competent Commission department, together with your CV, as part of your application to become member of an expert group or sub-group in a personal capacity. If there is any change concerning the information provided in the form, including on upcoming activities, you must promptly inform the competent Commission departments by completing a new DOI form which describes the changes in question.

Please note that having a declared interest does not necessarily mean having a conflict of interest. Answering "Yes" to a question on this DOI form does not automatically disqualify you or limit your participation in an expert group or sub-group. The competent Commission departments will review your answers in accordance with the horizontal rules and determine whether a conflict of interest relevant to the subject at hand exists²².

Where the competent Commission departments conclude that no conflict of interest exists, you are eligible to be appointed in a personal capacity. Where the competent Commission departments conclude that your interests may compromise or be reasonably perceived to compromise your capacity to act independently and in the public interest when providing advice to the Commission in relation to the subject of the work performed by the expert group or sub-group in question, they shall take one of the following measures to deal with the conflict of interest detected, depending on the specific circumstances:

²⁰ Idem, Article 3.

²¹ Idem, Article 7.2. (a).

²² Idem, Article 11.

- You shall not be appointed in a personal capacity to the expert group or sub-group in question; in such case the competent Commission department shall inform you about the outcome of the conflict of interest assessment performed;
- You shall be appointed as member of the expert group or sub-group in a personal capacity with a number of specific restrictions: you may be excluded from certain meetings and/or activities carried out by the group, such as drafting opinions or recommendations; you may also be required to abstain from discussing certain agenda items and/or from any vote on those items;
- You shall be appointed as member of the expert group or sub-group representing a common interest shared by a number of stakeholders, after consultation of the stakeholders concerned.

Your DOI form shall be made publicly available on the Register of Commission Expert Groups and Other Similar Entities, as long as you are appointed as member of the expert group or sub-group in a personal capacity. Technical measures will be taken to indicate to search engines that your DOI form should not appear in search results.

If you decline to complete a DOI form, you are not eligible to be appointed as a member of the expert group or sub-group in question in a personal capacity.

Personal data shall be collected, processed and published by the Commission in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

1. Introduction

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you may exercise in relation to your data (the right to access, rectify, block etc.).

The European institutions are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. As this service/application collects and further processes personal data, Regulation (UE) 2018/1725²³ of 23 October 2018, is applicable.

This statement concerns the Register of Commission Expert Groups and Other Similar Entities ('Register of expert groups') undertaken by the European Commission, Secretariat-General, Head of Unit G.4 (Institutional Affairs). The Register is a database containing a list of Commission expert groups and other similar entities and their sub-groups. For each expert group, the Register provides valuable information including on the Commission department which is running the group, as well as on the group members, mission and tasks. The Register also includes relevant documents which are produced and discussed by expert groups.

Personal data submitted to Commission departments as part of rejected applications are not published on the Register of expert groups. The competent Commission departments keep these data for six months and do not process them for other purposes.

²³ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002 (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39).

2. Why do we process your data?

Purpose of the processing operation: The European Commission, Secretariat-General, Head of Unit G.4 (Institutional Affairs) ('the Data Controller') collects and uses your personal information to ensure transparency on expert groups' membership and activities.

The processing and publication on the Register of expert's personal data is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, since it increases the transparency on Commission expert groups (article 5.1(a) of Regulation ((UE) 2018/1725).

As regards, in particular, the declarations of interests filled in by experts appointed in a personal capacity, the processing of personal data of these experts serves the public interest of enabling the Commission to verify the experts' independence in providing advice to the Commission. Furthermore, the public disclosure of declarations of interests allows for public scrutiny of the interests declared by experts appointed in a personal capacity, which is necessary in order to ensure public confidence in the independence of these experts. The public disclosure of declarations of interests also ensures a high degree of transparency with respect to the membership of expert groups and aims at contributing to fostering the integrity of the experts in question.

Art 39 of Regulation (UE) 2018/1725 is not applicable.

3. Which data do we collect and process?

The personal data collected and further processed may be:

- Name;
- Professional title;
- Professional profile;
- Nationality;
- Gender;
- Interest represented (only for individuals applying to be appointed as members of expert groups or sub-groups representing a common interest and for the designated representatives of organisations applying to be appointed members of expert groups or sub-groups);
- Information included in the declarations of interest (only for individuals applying to be appointed as members of expert groups or sub-groups in a personal capacity).

4. How long do we keep your data?

The Data Controller only keeps the data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing.

When an individual is no longer participating in a group listed in the Register of expert groups, all personal information related to this individual is removed from the Register. The competent Commission departments keep personal information for 5 years after the date where relevant individuals cease to participate in the work of the group.

Declarations of interests of individuals appointed as members or alternate members in a personal capacity of expert groups or sub-groups are published on the Register as long as they are members.

When a group is closed down, it remains published in the Register of expert groups for five years, with the indication 'Closed'. During such time, personal information other than the above-mentioned declarations of interests is visible on the Register.

An XML file is created daily with all the information regarding active groups. All versions of this file, showing the situation of the Register as of the day it was created, are stored in a file server for 5 years.

5. How do we protect your data?

All data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, uploaded batches of data etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Commission or of its contractors, the operations of which abide by the European Commission's security decision (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017²⁴. The Commission's contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your data on behalf of the Commission, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving from Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016²⁵.

6. Who has access to your data and to whom is it disclosed?

Information collected is publicly available on the Register of expert groups.

The XML files referred to in point 4 are not available neither via the internal application of the Register or the public version of the Register, and are only accessible to a reduced number of users in the System Owner and System Supplier's teams.

If you do not wish to have your name published on the Register of expert groups, you may submit a request to the relevant Commission department for a derogation from publication. A derogation shall be granted where justified on compelling legitimate grounds in relation to your specific situation, in particular where disclosure of the experts' name could endanger your security or integrity.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the secretariat of the competent Commission department or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer and if necessary the European Data Protection Supervisor using the contact information given at point 8 below.
