

Program Youth on the Move Brno

1 - 4 November 2011

Tuesday 1 November

Time	Project
8h15-9h00	Have a chat with students about their stay abroad with the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
9h15-10h15	Learn about the experience students gained during their stay in the South of England and in Hungary with the Leonardo da Vinci program.
10h30-11h15	Talk to students about their stay in France, Norway, Lithuania, the Netherlands, Great Britain and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
11h30-12h30	Take part in the Hlinarch project presentation and get a hands on experience in making a clay sgraffito Leonardo da Vinci program.
12h45-13h15	Talk to students about their stay in France, Norway, Lithuania, the Netherlands, Great Britain and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
13h30-14h00	How to develop an interactive portal with explanatory dictionary specialised in furniture related terminology in five language mutations (English, Bulgarian, Czech, German and Slovak)? Hear an interesting testimony from the Leonardo da Vinci program.
14h15-15h15	Advantages of studying abroad presented by an engineering student, or A Czech mechanical engineer's international successes in Sweden and Canada. Presentation about changing your point of view and about the importance of international exchange programs for improved future career Erasmus Mundus Program.
15h30 - 16h00	Active counseling for companies at job centers in the Czech Republic and Austria. Testimonies of managing personnel of 5 job centers from a stay in Austria within Leonardo da Vinci program.

Wednesday 2 November

Time	Project
8h15-9h45	Talk to students about their stay in Ireland, Slovenia, Turkey, Great Britain and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
9h10-9h45	Advantages of studying abroad presented by an engineering student or a Czech mechanical engineer's international successes in Sweden and Canada. Presentation about changing your point of view and about the importance of international exchange programs for improved future career Erasmus Mundus Program.
10h00-10h30	How international volunteers help at the St Michael Sheltered Housing project for mentally challenged people and autistic individuals Youth in Action program.
10h30-11h30	"Travelling is good for your thinking". Listen to testimonies of research stays of scientists and researchers from individual European Union countries in other member countries within the Marie Curie program.
11h30-12h00	How can a European program help recreate a traditional folk costume from the Slavkov region? Ask Vitek Knotek and his friends how they achieved this with the help of Youth in Action program.
12h15-13h00	Talk to students about their stay in France, Germany, Great Britain, Turkey and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
13h15-14h00	Light in the Dark was a unique two-week project based on tolerance, cooperation, perception and experience. Two worlds came together -- the world of the sighted and the sightless. Come hear and try out all that the sightless and the sighted experienced together and how they enriched each other's world Youth in action program.
14h15-15h00	Talk to students about their stay in France, the Netherlands, Germany, Norway or Turkey within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
15h15-16h00	How to get employed at a foreign NGO? Where to travel? How to get in touch with individual institutions? Ask representatives of The South Moravian Region which supports this project within the Youth in action program.

Thursday 3 November

Time	Project
8h15-9h45	Building a school as an open and accessible town center is the aim of the project School as a town center - from passivity to activity within the European program Grundtvig .
9h00-10h30	Talk to students about their stay in Slovenia, the Netherlands, Germany, Lithuania, Turkey and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
9h45-10h15	How is collaboration between a Czech, Slovak, Austrian and German grammar school. Listen about the achievements facilitated by the Comenius program, within the Journeys across the Danube .
10h15-11h45	Talk to students about their stay in Slovenia, the Netherlands, Germany, Lithuania, Turkey and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
11h00-11h30	Learning about other European nations, raising cultural knowledge of other European nations, creating a shared tourist guide, cook book or a CD of folk songs: all that comprises the How similar/different we are project within the Comenius program.
11h45-12h15	Talk to students about their stay in Slovenia, the Netherlands, Germany, Lithuania, Turkey and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
12h30-13h15	Talk to students about their stay in France, Great Britain, Norway, Germany, Turkey and elsewhere within the Erasmus program. Take the opportunity to ask questions about anything you might be interested in.
14h00-14h45	Young people from 16 to 20 from five European countries are collaborating on a project targeted at fighting racism and xenophobia and learning tolerance of other cultures. Ask them how they're managing. Cross Perspectives On Exile project within the Comenius European program.
15h00-15h45	A Thing Is Not the Thing - find out about the lessons of movement theater, theater education, juggling, psychomotor games, work with an object and many other activities in presence of young people from France, Finland, Germany, Romania, Latvia, Slovakia and the Czech Republic within the Grundtvig program.
14h45 - 16h00	A gala event in the presence of Mr. Jan Truszczyński, the Director-General for Education and Culture, European Commission

Friday 4 November

Time	Project
8h15-9h45	Erasmus in Great Britain. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
9h00-9h30	Erasmus in Germany. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
9h45-10h15	Erasmus in Bulgaria. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
10h30-11h15	Presentation of the project Efficiency measurement of lifelong learning , Leonardo da Vinci
11h30-12h	Erasmus in Ireland. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
12h15-12h45h	Erasmus in Austria. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
13h00 - 13h30	Erasmus in Germany. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
13h45-14h30	How to develop an interactive portal with explanatory dictionary specialised in furniture related terminology in five language mutations (English, Bulgarian, Czech, German and Slovak)? Hear an interesting testimony from the Leonardo da Vinci program.
14h45-15h15	Erasmus in the Netherlands. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.
15h30-16h00	Erasmus in France. Talk to students about their stay in various European countries and ask them questions about anything you might be interested in.